

'PURPOSE AND PHILANTHROPY' FIELD TRIP SIEM REAP, CAMBODIA

7 DAYS/6 NIGHTS | 21-27 APRIL 2019

OVERVIEW

Imagine heading to Siem Reap for Easter and Anzac Day for this amazing tour and cultural experience — and only having to take three days off work!

This ethical, inspiring, socially responsible tour will see you form connections with local Khmers who have overcome adversity to move forward with their lives.

You will be immersed in the Cambodian culture and learn about the innovative approaches that NGOs and social enterprises are taking to overcome poverty and social issues. You will have the opportunity to see firsthand the impact that Human and Hope Association (HHA) is making in the community, and you will join the local team for dinner, giving you the opportunity to share stories.

The purpose for this trip is to provide our travellers with an opportunity to see firsthand, the many ways in which philanthropy and NGOs make an impactful difference, and why they are still greatly needed throughout Cambodia. Our hope is to ignite our travellers' passions and purpose!

Your host for this trip is Sally Hetherington, President of Human and Hope Association Incorporated.
